Course Offerings

Sky Land School of Real Estate conducts:

the Broker Prelicensing Course required to qualify to take the license examination to become licensed as a real estate provisional broker in North Carolina; and the Postlicensing Education Program needed for a provisional broker to remove the provisional status of such license; and the annual Continuing Education courses needed to maintain a real estate license on active status.

Broker Prelicensing Course

Purpose of the Course

Successful completion of the Broker Prelicensing Course is generally required to qualify for the North Carolina (NC) real estate license examination and to obtain a NC real estate broker license. The primary objectives of this course are (1) to provide students with the basic knowledge and skills necessary to act as licensed real estate brokers in North Carolina in a manner that protects and serves the public interest and (2) to prepare students for the NC real estate license examination. This course may only be offered by education providers certified by the NC Real Estate Commission. At Sky Land School of Real Estate, the Broker Prelicensing Course consists of a total of 77.5 instructional hours, including the end-of-course examination.

After passing the Prelicensing course, a student must submit a license application to the NC Real Estate Commission to be eligible to take the license examination. License application instructions are provided in the free publication Real Estate Licensing in North Carolina (RELINC) which is available on the Commission's website at www.ncrec.gov. The minimum age requirement to obtain a real estate license in North Carolina is 18.

Course Description

Major topics addressed in the Broker Prelicensing Course include basic real estate concepts and law, property taxation, land use controls, environmental hazards, brokerage relationships and practices, real estate contracts, real estate financing, closing a real estate sale transaction, real property valuation, property insurance basics, fair housing laws, landlord and tenant, property management, federal income taxation of real estate, basic construction, basic real estate investment, North Carolina Real Estate License Law and Commission Rules, and Trust Account Guidelines. Real estate mathematics is an important component of this course and calculations will be required.

End-of-Course Examination

The end-of-course examination will be administered as follows:

- For online courses, end-of-course examinations will be proctored and administrated via an online testing service on the final day of class
- For in-person courses, end-of-course examinations will be conducted in class on the final day of class

An end-of-course exam will not be administered to any student who does not satisfy the course attendance requirement.

Students are not permitted to bring laptops, tablets, cell phones, or similar electronic devices (other than a basic calculator) into the testing site on the day of an in-person exam. Any student who brings such a device into the testing site on the day of an exam will be required to remove it before the exam begins. Moreover, for online exams, students will be advised of protocols and procedures related to the exam in advance.

Missed Exams

Sky Land School of Real Estate WILL allow a Broker Prelicensing Course student who does not take the initial end-of-course exam as scheduled to take a makeup exam one time within 30 days of the last scheduled day of the course at a time and date stated by the Education Provider.

Failed Exams

Sky Land School of Real Estate WILL allow a Broker Prelicensing Course student who takes but does not pass the initial end-of-course exam to retake the end-of-course exam one (1) time; however all retakes must be within 30 days of the last scheduled day of the course at a time and date stated by the Education Provider.

Eligibility Requirements for Course Completion Certificate

To successfully complete the Broker Prelicensing Course and receive a course completion certificate, a student must:

- a) meet the attendance requirements,
- b) timely submit completed in-class and take-home assignments, and
- c) pass the end-of-course exam with a minimum score of 75%.

All-Inclusive Tuition/Fees

The Broker Prelicensing Course is $435, and the required textbook is included in the cost of tuition. Students have the option of choosing either the electronic version of the textbook or the physical version of the textbook, but not both. If a student would like both versions then the other version is available at an additional cost of $40. In addition, please note that if a student opts for a physical copy of the textbook instead of the electronic version and is unable to pick the textbook up at our offices, there will be an additional charge for shipping. Moreover, students have the option of enrolling in the Prelicensing Course with a partial payment of $235 in advance of the first day of class. Thereafter, the balance of the tuition is due by no later than the halfway point of the course.

A student may retake a Broker Prelicensing Course for a discounted fee of $235, subject to the following conditions: 1) the retake course begins within six (6) months from the last day of the previous course; 2) the tuition fee is paid in full prior to the first day of the course; and 3) if the required textbook has changed or been updated, the student must purchase the new textbook.

Broker Postlicensing Education Courses

Purpose of the Postlicensing Program

The primary objective of Postlicensing Education Program is to provide instruction at a level beyond that provided in the Broker Prelicensing Course on topics deemed to be of special importance to licensees.

Per General Statute 93A-4(a1), provisional brokers must complete, within eighteen (18) months following initial licensure, a postlicensing education program consisting of ninety (90) hours of instruction in subjects determined by the Commission in order to retain eligibility to actively engage in real estate brokerage.

The Postlicensing program consists of three 30-hour courses prescribed by the NC Real Estate Commission that may be taken in any sequence. Be aware that a postlicensing course will expire two (2) years after its completion date. When a provisional broker has timely completed all three (3) courses, the provisional status of the broker's license will be automatically terminated by the NC Real Estate Commission.

Course Descriptions

Post 301 - Brokerage Relationships and Responsibilities

Topics addressed in this course include a review of agency relationships in real estate residential and commercial sales and commercial property management transactions, a real estate broker's legal duties to clients and customers, a step-by-step review and discussion of the functions and responsibilities of a real estate broker when working with sellers and buyers, a review of issues associated with transactions in progress when a broker leaves a firm, and a review of license status and education issues.

Post 302 - Contracts and Closing

Topics addressed in this course include selected basic contract law concepts, real estate sales contract preparation, sales contract procedures, buyer's due diligence, closing procedures, Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act, closing disclosure preparation, contracts for deed, options, and selected real estate license status and education issues.

Post 303 - NC Law, Rules, and Legal Concepts

Topics addressed in this course include general NC licensing requirements, brokerage compensation issues, the disciplinary process, specialized types of real estate, property management in NC, and miscellaneous laws and legal concepts.

Course Materials

Each student is required to use and have immediate access to the current editions of the NC Real Estate Manual and North Carolina License Law and Commission Rules booklet during each Postlicensing course session.

Sky Land School of Real Estate DOES allow a student to use the online versions of the NC Real Estate Manual and NC License Law & Commission Rules booklet during classes.

End-of-Course Exams

The end-of-course examination will be administered as follows:

- For online courses, end-of-course examinations will be proctored and administrated via an online testing service on the final day of class
- For in-person courses, end-of-course examinations will be conducted in class on the final day of class

An end-of-course exam will not be administered to any student who does not satisfy the course attendance requirement.

Students are not permitted to bring laptops, tablets, cell phones, or similar electronic devices (other than a basic calculator) into the testing site on the day of an in-person exam.
